

Aline Reynolds

115 West 77th Street, Apt. 5F | New York, NY 10024

516-647-4941 | Reynolds.Aline@gmail.com

My multidisciplinary career in city planning and urban affairs writing equips me with a unique and rich skill set.

Education

Harvard University Graduate School of Design, Master of Urban Planning, Cambridge, M.A. 2016.

Concentrations: Transportation & Infrastructure Planning, Environmental Planning

Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism, Master of Science, New York, N.Y. 2009.

Barnard College, Bachelor of Arts magna cum laude, Columbia University, New York, N.Y. 2007.

Urban Planning Experience

AECOM - Transportation Planner | New York, N.Y. 2017-2018. Worked on key Tri-State Area highway projects led by the New York State Department of Transportation and the Port Authority. Undertook a range of writing, analysis, and public outreach tasks, including the creation of public comment matrices; the drafting and editing of planning reports and PowerPoint presentations; and coordination with partner consultants and clients.

Volpe, The National Transportation Systems Center - Community Planner | Cambridge, M.A. 2016.

Wrote and researched environmental initiatives and program design improvements for transportation projects.

Harvard University School of Design - Urban Planning Student | 2014 – 2016, Cambridge, M.A.

- Client Proposal | Advised Boston's Transportation Department on ways to improve select city transit hubs.
- MIT Urban Transportation Project | Co-wrote a growth management memo for Boston's Seaport District.
- Mellon Initiative Summer Associate | Researched public realm best practices for Boston's mobility plan.
- Tufts Corridor Plan | Developed a streetscape improvement plan for Tufts University's Medford campus.

Cambridge Redevelopment Authority - Planning Intern | Cambridge, M.A. 2015. Researched and drafted local open space and transit plans, including guidelines for a new Kendall Square Transit Enhancement Program.

Philip Habib & Associates - Planning Intern | New York, N.Y. 2014. Drafted text and created maps for Environmental Assessments, following NYC environmental review guidelines, of proposed new developments.

Journalism Experience

Next City, Planning Magazine, Lincoln Institute of Land Policy - Freelance Contributor | New York, N.Y. 2017-present. Write stories about urban affairs. Undertake web-based project for Lincoln Institute, using Drupal.

Tribeca Trib - Associate Editor | New York, N.Y. 2013-2014. Wrote articles about the post-9/11 revitalization of Lower Manhattan, including a coastal resiliency proposal; bike lanes and other infrastructure projects; and the redevelopment of the South Street Seaport. Helped to maintain the newspaper's website, and took photos.

Downtown Express / Villager - Associate Editor (promoted from Reporter) | New York, N.Y. 2010-2012.

Edited, assigned, and wrote articles on the post-9/11 revitalization of Lower Manhattan and related quality-of-life issues, including the rebuilding of the World Trade Center; the design of the Fulton Center transit hub; congestion; and air pollution. Helped to manage the Downtown Express's website as well as its Twitter and Facebook accounts.